ANOTHER PURSE FOR BOXER

R. E. WATKINS' GOOD JUVENILE WINS HANDICAP AT CHARLESTON.

Overcomes Early Interference and Gets Up to Beat Emerald Gem by Narrow Margin in Sensational Finish—Coup Brought Off with Marshon.

Charleston, S. C., December 10.—R. E. Watkins' good colt Boxer again demonstrated that he is above the ordinary when he accounted for today's all-aged handicap at five and a half furlongs at Palmetto Park over a shifty band of short distance racers. He was conceding weight to all the others and in the first quarter of the running was forced so far back that his chances appeared decidedly slim. J. Smyth, who had the mount, seemingly was unable to get him out of difficulty until approaching the stretch turn, where he took him wide. Dr. Carmen and Emerald Gem were the leaders at this point and the margin they enjoyed made it appear certain that they would have the finish between them. At the last furlong post Dr. Carmen quit and Honey Bee made a determined bid for the lead, but Emerald Gem withstood her challenge handily enough. Just when everyone was conceding Emerald Gem the purse, Boxer began moving up with a cyclonic rush and in sensational fashion got up in the last stride to beat Emerald Gem. Honey Bee was third.

The layers were hit heavily during the afternoon, all the winners being extensively supported. The Colton connections again scored a coup, with the veteran Marshon on this occasion serving as the medium. He was decidedly best of his field and won as jockey Turner pleased.

Jockey Rightmire, who was stricken with an attack of acute Bright's disease yesterday, is said to be in a bad way at one of the local hospitals.

The filly Penniless was taken sick with fever this morning and was excused from starting in the sixth race by the stewards.

While being exercised this morning, Luther bolted to the inside rail and crashed through the fence. In the mix-up he injured himself across the back.

Flying Yankee has been blistered and will be an absentee from the races for a couple of months.

MORE ABOUT ENGLISH TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Another season has ended at Newmarket, with the exception of the December Sales, and in the meantime the position of the two-year-olds will be much discussed. All the best of them have retired into winter quarters, and no argument may be convincing enough to settle the question as to which of the juveniles is likely to make the best three-year-old, though in a great majority of years that falls to the lot of the best two-year-old. It required a great deal to turn the late Matthew Dawson, and many others of our best old trainers, from their solid belief in that rule. Size, they would tell you, had nothing to do with it, and among the best three-year-olds bred by the successful Lord Falmouth were the miniature wonders Busybody, Wheel of Fortune, and Spinaway, whilst many of our best Derby winners have been somewhat below the medium. Of late years we appear to have quite returned to the era of the Parmesans and Newminsters, and it is very curious how size, like good and bad vintages, run in cycles. Between Pavonius in 1871 and Ard Patrick in 1902 we had some fine big horses indeed—such as Doncaster, George Frederick, Galopin, St. Gatien, Harvester, Ormonde, Common, Sir Hugo, Isinglass, Ladas, Persimmon, Galtee More, Jeddah, Flying Fox, Diamond Jubilee, and Ard Patrick. Then followed the smaller tribe, composed of Rock Sand, St. Amant, Cicero, Minoru, Lemberg, Sunstar, and Craganour, with Hapsburg only beaten by a French horse this year.

Rumor is not favorable to the future of Roseland, and, strictly on the running since July, when all two-year-olds should be well matured and pretty well at their best, there are not so many pounds between eight or nine of them. The official handicapper in the Free Handicap placed Friar Marcus at 126 pounds, Roseland 125 pounds, King Priam and Torloisk 123 pounds, Redfern 122 pounds, Pommern, Let Fly, and Glaze colt 120 pounds, Sunfire 118 pounds, Buskin 114 pounds, Costello 108 pounds, Archelaus, 107 pounds, Joyous Gard, 106 pounds, and Sammarco 102 pounds. We introduce the latter merely as a link between some of those above him. He ran in two races last week, first with Archelaus, Tournament, and Cattistock, and on Friday in the Free Handicap. Archelaus, by beating him four lengths, would therefore be entitled to go up to 114 pounds at least, for though that race was only over five furlongs, we must not take it for granted that Archelaus cannot stay.

Then through Sammarco Buskin would have to go up above Costello, though I am inclined to doubt the truth of that Free Handicap running, on the grounds that it was the second effort of both Costello and Sammarco during the week, and though Costello won his race with great ease he had to gallop the Rowley Mile with top weight, and that severe course must take something out of any two-year-old. Sammarco had also got off moderately, which fact, with his previous beating, entitles him surely to some allowance. The going was much heavier owing to heavy rain throughout the greater part of the night, and Buskin has the strength for hard work. I thought he looked one of the best-trained horses stripped during the week, and he would be a remarkably fine horse except for being a little upright and a little heavy in the shoulder. It was through Buskin, Lamplugh, and Sammarco that I guaged the chance of Friar Marcus for the Middle Park Plate, and though Wootton may have tried Torloisk, greatly the superior of Buskin on hard ground, it is quite likely the estimate would prove incorrect, with the ground as it was on Friday. In Torloisk's last race he easily beat Cattistock at three pounds, but the latter was unplaced to Archelaus, Sammarco, and Tournament, trying to give fifteen pounds. In previous races Torloisk easily gave Sammarco fifteen pounds, but at our July meetings Sunfire, Policastro, and Archelaus beat him at even weights, and later at Liverpool Sunfire was not fancied when the tables were turned at a difference of five pounds. Torloisk is a lengthy and somewhat leggy colt, with great room for improvement, but five furlongs is his course, and he is by Gallinule, whose stock has not done well in his latter days.

The official handicapper does not accept the defeat of King Priam by Pommern as correct, or the remarkable ease with which the latter defeated him at Kempton would more than account for the eight pounds between them. It may, however, be said that Charles Peck expected Pommern to win through a remarkable gallop with such old horses as Maiden Erlegh, Honeywood, and Bugler Boy, and also at an earlier period of the year with Poor Boy. Pommern is a good-looking horse that had come on more between Goodwood and Kempton than could have been imagined, and it is not surprising when one hears what he could do with the horses I have mentioned, that King Priam was quite outpaced with his big weight. At the same time we did not see King Priam at his best, for he should have beaten Follow Up more than a head, and it is probable that, having grown into such a big, strong colt, he required more work than it was safe to give him on the hard ground. Sunfire is a game little horse and a fine stayer, though as the Middle Park Plate shows, he is considerably inferior to Friar Marcus, Redfern, and Let Fly, which in my humble opinion, are the best two-year-olds of the year, with Pommern a possible rival.

It has been already stated that Marsh had not wound Friar Marcus up thoroughly tight for the Middle Park Plate, and if the ground had not been so hard he would have given him two or three more good gallops. That being so, he may be seven pounds better than Redfern when wound up completely. Then we have had another marvelous battle between Redfern and Let Fly, which leaves them exactly the same animal over six and seven furlongs at Goodwood, Doncaster, and Newmarket. This should be sufficient to refute all arguments that Redfern had gone off a little, and he never ran better than against his old opponent Let Fly on Friday. A good many I know were of opinion that the latter was a little inclined to shirk at a severe finish, and that five furlongs was his best course, but the fact that he won the third great battle over seven furlongs removes all doubt, and he appears to me likely to improve more than Redfern during the winter months.—"Warren Hill" in London Sporting Life.

MANY CONTRIBUTORS TO R. T. WILSON'S TOTAL OF $49,630

Twenty-eight horses raced under the Montpelier Stable colors this year, a number of which were passed on to other ownerships from time to time as the racing campaign progressed. The net result of their endeavors was seventy-three races and $49,630 won, a gain over the stable's record of fifty-nine races and $41,585 won in 1913. No really high-class horse was in Mr. Wilson's possession this year, nor for that matter in recent years. Such as Amalfi, Pomette Bleu, Tartar, Hester Prynne and Montresor were good race horses, but nothing approximating great race horses. None of his two-year-olds was more than useful. It is really to be hoped that the future holds in store for this high-class turfman the acquisition of racers of the Roamer class. No one did more for the restoration of New York racing and it would be but fitting that his reward should be one of those imperial creatures that only crop up now and then to bring great joy to their proud owners. As matters stand, however, it is probable that he is quite well satisfied with his creditable stable record for the year, it being:

TIPPECANOE THE CHIEF MONEY WINNER FOR THE BROOKDALE STABLE

In 1913 Messrs. Dyment purchased in England through an agent three American-bred two-year-olds which had belonged to the late Charles Kohler. Two of these, the Uncle colts Bendel and Double Bass, did not prove paying investments, but their deficiencies were more than atoned for the capital racing of the third member of the trio. This was the Haggin-bred colt, Tippecanoe, which proved quite the star of the Dyment stable and in taking among his victories the valuable Dominion Handicap at Fort Erie defeated such good ones as Great Britain, Kleburne, Barnegat, Clubs, Sandbar, Dr. Samuel and Donerail, and ran its mile and a quarter in such fast time as 2:04⅖. In all, he won more than half of the stable's total for the year and as a fast and staying young horse should prove equal to achieving further triumphs next year. Next to Tippecanoe the filly Lady Curzon was the stable's best winner and herself achieved more than a respectable measure of success. The record of the stable for the year is:

FORMER JOCKEY LOSES HIS MIND.

New York, December 10.—Ben Rigby, an old-time jockey, came home from France yesterday on the French liner Rochambeau. He won and spent fortunes on the tracks of this and other countries, but he has ridden his last race and spent his last cent. He has been a paretic for several years and has finally become insane. Friends in London paid his passage home and sent a trained nurse with him. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital and will be sent to St. Louis, where his mother lives, at once. He is 35 years old. On the Rochambeau were a number of people who had known the famous rider in the past, and a purse of $250 was collected for him.

CUBAN TRACK NEAR READY

H. D. BROWN HAS NEW COURSE AT HAVANA PRACTICALLY COMPLETED.

Track Proper Was Finished a Week Ago and Finishing Touches Are Now Being Put on Stables—Cost of Plant Already Exceeds $300,000.

Havana, Cuba, December 10.—Despite counter attractions at other points, reports from horsemen in the United States indicate that the Cuba-American Jockey Club will receive the support of prominent American stables at its new course at Marianao this winter. Local people are taking keen interest in the new enterprise. Everyone in Havana is talking of the coming winter meeting and on Sundays immense crowds visit the course to inspect the work done. Already the natives are studying up the form of the thoroughbreds that are coming over to race. Some of the local papers have printed a list of the horses with their owners and therefore some of the Cubans are already familiar with the names of many of the thoroughbreds. Another factor that will tend to make the meeting a success is the great number of tourists who are coming to Cuba this winter. The Cuban consuls in the United States have reports that the outlook is for more travel in this direction during the winter months than ever before. Times were never so prosperous in Cuba as at present and this is a factor that will play an important part in the success of the new racing venture. The banks which held over last year's sugar crop have disposed of the output at a big profit and the planters have derived the benefit of the inflated price of sugar for this season's crop. Then again the people here are looking to some other sport since the jai alai games were abolished and it is but natural that racing should take the place of this exciting pastime. The population of Havana is close to half a million and this is increased by fully 50,000 tourists during the winter season.

H. D. Brown, the promoter of the club, has done wonderful work here during the past six months. Oriental Park is now practically completed. Work on the track proper was finished a week ago and most of the stables are now ready to house the thoroughbreds. The barns are constructed in a substantial and sanitary manner and will be a revelation to the horsemen. The grandstand is of steel mostly and is said by the Americans who have inspected it, to compare favorably with similar structures at Saratoga and other large race courses in the United States. In fact the general outline of the course is modeled after the Saratoga plant, which was constructed by Mr. Leavitt, noted as the best race course architect in America. By far the most important building on the grounds is the club house. It is a handsome structure with wide verandas and comfortable lounging rooms. Over $300,000 has been expended on the plant so far, which is evidence enough that it is first class.

The management has succeeded in having attractive rates made by the railroads from Charleston and other points to Havana and arrangements have also been completed which will enable horsemen to load at Palmetto Park, Charleston, and unload at Oriental Park, Marianao. The starting gates and other paraphanalia used by starter Milton are already here and the gates will be in position next week, ready for assistant starter McGinty to school the two-year-olds on his arrival.

Both the books and mutuels will be in operation here and will be operated without restrictions of any sort. The beauty of the country and the ideal winter climate will be a positive revelation to those who will make their first visit to Cuba. Havana is now conceded to be the cleanest and healthiest city in the world. The weather is balmy and the tropical foliage lends a charm to the country which makes the place a veritable fairyland. There is something about the place that gets in one's blood and once a visitor to the Pearl of the Antilles means a booster ever afterward for Cuba.

HANDICAP TO BELLE OF BRYN MAWR.

Mare from Shilling Stable Wins Feature Race at Juarez—Better Class of Horses Coming Out.

El Paso, Tex., December 10.—Continued cold weather today did not deter the race-going public of this section from crossing the Rio Grande in goodly numbers to enjoy a fairly good program arranged for them by Secretary Jasper. Now that the track is getting fast the better horses are being entered and before the holidays come, should the weather stay good, it is believed that the best handicap horses will face the barrier.

The feature of the day was the Jiminez Handicap, seven furlongs. In this race Belle of Bryn Mawr and Old Ben made their initial appearance of the meeting. The former ruled as the public choice and justified the confidence reposed in her by never giving her supporters an anxious moment. She just cantered in front of her opposition all the way. Old Ben was so well thought of that he was backed from 4 to 1 to 5 to 2. His effort was a good one, but he could not combat with the winner today.

The opening dash, for maiden two-year-olds, was captured by the favorite, May Maid, from the barn of W. G. Yanke, in impressive fashion.

Rosiris, heavily backed from sixes to threes, beat a fair band of sprinters in the closing dash at six furlongs in an easy manner.

Recent work-outs at Juarez over a heavy track were as follows:

Admiral's Daughter—Five-eighths in 1:10⅖.
Alda—Three-eighths in 43.
Alice Teresa—Half mile in 57⅖.
Amon—Half mile in 57.
Ben Levy—Three-eighths in 43.
Besom—Three-eighths in 45.
Delaney—Half mile in 59.
Felina—Three-eighths in 49.
Fort Sumter—Five-eighths in 1:15⅖.
Ida—Half mile in 59.
Kelsetta—Half mile in 58½.
Make Good—Three-eighths in 43.
Marty Lou—Three-quarters in 1:29⅖.
Nannie McDee—Three-eighths in 43.
No Quarter—Half mile in 57⅖.
Nobby—Half mile in 54⅖.
Osapie—Half mile in 57.
Pay Streak—Half mile in 57.
Princess Janice—Three-eighths in 45.
Pro Realis—Half mile in 57⅖.
Rose Oneil—Five-eighths in 1:10⅖.
Russ Saud—Three-eighths in 43⅖.
Safranor—Three-eighths in 43⅖.
Swiftsure—Half mile in 59.
Trojan Belle—Three-quarters in 1:28⅖.
Wilbite—Three-eighths in 43⅖.
Wood Dove—Three-eighths in 43.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

There will be a spring meeting at the Timonium track in Maryland next year.

The stables of J. B. Respess, in charge of A. L. Kirby, and W. E. Walsh, in charge of J. Lally, have arrived at the Fair Grounds, New Orleans.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Close upon the delivery of President Wilson's message depreciating any departure from the nation's present defense policies there came the annual report of Secretary of War Garrison disclosing the total unpreparedness of the army of the United States to repel any consequential foe. In contrast with the president's assertion that national defense has not been neglected, that the people have been misinformed of the condition of the army and navy, and that this year of world conflict is not the time to adopt extraordinary measures of protection, Mr. Garrison shows how the lack of an adequate army and reserves places the United States at the mercy of an enemy, urges the immediate provision of a larger land force and calls upon the nation to heed the lessons of the European war.

Fire destroyed virtually the entire main plant of the Edison company at West Orange, N. J., causing damage estimated at nearly $7,000,000, with insurance that it is expected will reduce the loss to approximately $5,000,000. A square block of eleven modern reinforced concrete buildings, which were supposed to be fireproof was burned out by the flames. The only building saved in the block was the laboratory building, containing valuable scientific machinery under the immediate superintendence of the inventor, Thomas A. Edison. Special efforts made to save this structure were successful.

A resolution was introduced in the United States senate by Senator Kenyon requesting the warring nations, in the name of the congress of the United States, to declare a twenty-day truce over the Christmas holidays "that the Christian people of the world may fittingly observe the Christmas season" and with "the hope that such cessation of hostilities may stimulate reflection upon the part of such nations as to the meaning and spirit of the Christmas time, and that there may come again on earth peace and good will toward men."

The United States this year has produced the greatest crop of cotton in its history. The total is more than 16,000,000 bales—15,966,000 of lint cotton, and linter cotton unofficially estimated at from 600,000 to 650,000 bales. Last year 14,342,367 bales, including linters, were produced, and in the previous record year, 1911, the production was 16,250,276 bales, including linters.

Gen. Frederick Funston has been relieved of the command of the Fifth brigade at Galveston, and the belief is that he will not return to Texas. His successor in command, it is said, will be Brig. Gen. George Bell, Jr., who is now at Vancouver barracks, Washington.

Food, clothing or any commodity which would in the slightest degree serve to prolong the European war, as well as contraband, would be barred from export under a bill introduced in the United States senate by Senator Works.

Serious opposition to President Wilson's ship purchase bill developed when Representative Kitchin of North Carolina, ranking Democratic member of the house ways and means committee, announced his intention of fighting the bill.

That the United States faces a prospective deficit of approximately $60,000,000 in the next fiscal year is shown in the annual report issued by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo.

The Australian legislative council has ratified the bill empowering the government to purchase the whole of the ensuing wheat crop of New South Wales at $1.25 a bushel.

Great Britain has announced officially that Egyptian cotton may be exported to neutral countries without any restrictions concerning its re-exportation.

President Wilson again flatly opposed the idea that woman suffrage in the United States should be effected by an amendment to the Constitution.

Federal troops in the Colorado strike region probably will be ordered withdrawn today.

CURTIS GUNN'S WILL PROBATED.

I. F. Dankowski, assistant to the Probate judge admitted to probate at Chicago yesterday the will of Curtis A. Gunn, speculator and associate of the late John W. Gates. The will disposes of an estate estimated at $330,000, of which $20,000 is real estate. Mrs. Kittie N. Gunn, 4119 Drexel boulevard, the widow, attacked the validity of the will, alleging that undue influence was brought to bear upon her husband to induce him to make certain provisions of his last will.

The widow is named in the will as executrix of the estate, with the provision that if she does not wish to act in this capacity Charles L. Rodgers, 1444 Hyde Park boulevard, shall act. Mr. Rodgers is the husband of Mrs. Pluma E. Gunn Rodgers, granddniece and foster daughter of Mr. Gunn, who is left $50,000 by the will.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

Persistent attacks by the Germans, within forty miles of Warsaw, are admitted by the official statement from the Russian war office. It is declared that on the evening of Dec. 7, the Germans began an advance along the entire fifty-mile front from Ilow to Glovno. They were repulsed with enormous losses. Fighting in the vicinity of Mlawa is less violent, it is declared. The statement follows: "On Dec. 8 the fighting in the region of Mlawa was less energetic. On the left bank of the Vistula on the evening of Dec. 7, the Germans commenced an energetic advance along the entire front from Ilow to Glovno. They made repeated persistent attacks in dense columns. The Russian fire, aided by searchlights which swept the German lines, resulted in enormous losses to the enemy. The Germans were repulsed everywhere. On the same day stubborn fighting between Lowicz and Ilow was without result for the Germans. Fighting continues, with the situation unchanged in the Piotrkow region, South of Cracow the battle is still in progress, the fighting being pressed with great persistency. The Germans endeavored three times to break the Russian line, but were repulsed with heavy losses." According to advices received and published by the Berliner Tageblatt, the battle in South Poland is developing favorably for the Germans and Austrians. The Russian forces, which were originally lined bow-shaped around Cracow, according to the Tageblatt, have now been repulsed at the wings. The Amsterdam Telegraaf prints a Berlin dispatch stating that the sound of Russian guns is plainly audible at Cracow, that Austrian aeroplanes are flying over the Russian troops and dropping bombs, and that the residents of the city are digging cellars in which to hide during the bombardment that threatens.

The British official bureau announced last evening that the cruiser Nurnberg, which escaped when three other German warships were sunk by the British off South America, also has been sunk by an English fleet. There are believed to have been nine warships in the British fleet under Vice Admiral Sir Frederick Charles Doveton Sturdee, which defeated the German fleet under Admiral Graf von Spee, off the Falkland Islands, Tuesday, with the loss of nearly 2,000 lives. The battleship Canopus, which arrived too late to take part in the engagement off Chile November 1, when two English cruisers were sunk, is believed to have played a prominent part in the sinking of the German armored cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Leipzig. The text of the British official statement reads: "A further telegram has been received from Vice-Admiral Sir Doveton Sturdee reporting that the Nurnberg also was sunk on Dec. 8, and that the search for the Dresden still is proceeding. The action lasted for five hours, with intervals. The Scharnhorst sank after three hours, and the Gneisenau two hours later. The enemy's light cruisers scattered and were chased by our cruisers and light cruisers. No loss of any British vessel is reported."

The Servian legation at Rome makes public a report from Servian headquarters to the effect that the Servian army has won a complete victory resulting in the re-capture of the towns of Valjevo and Ushitza, in Servia, and the rout of two Austrian corps. The Austrians, says the report, abandoned everything, even their treasure chest. The Servians took 20,000 prisoners, fifty cannon and large quantities of rifles, machine guns and munitions of every description. The official communication issued at Vienna says: "Part of our troops in Servia encountered west of Milanovatz strong hostile forces and could not break through them. In order to avoid a counter attack some of troops were ordered to occupy more favorably situated positions. On December 8 we captured twenty guns and took numerous prisoners."

Just how serious is the illness of Kaiser Wilhelm II., emperor of Germany, is shrouded in considerable mystery. While the official bulletins issued from the sickroom contain no further reference to the nature of the ailment since the earlier statement that he is suffering from "bronchial catarrh and a feverish condition," there are persistent unofficial and unconfirmed reports indirectly from Berlin that the emperor is a victim of pneumonia. Late and apparently reliable advices are that the illness has been severe, but that the worst is over. These advices are that the kaiser was seized with an attack of influenza while on a secret visit to Emperor Francis Joseph. Sources of information by way of Holland and Copenhagen indicate that he is now making progress toward recovery.

Yesterday's official communication issued by the German army headquarters staff asserts that a French attack resumed in the forest of Argonne was repulsed, the allied forces losing heavily. The text of the statement reads: "In the district of Souain the French confined themselves to heavy artillery firing. A renewed French attack on Rocroi and Courcullies did not make any progress. The attack broke down under the fire of our artillery, the enemy suffering heavy loss. Three of the enemy's aviators dropped about ten bombs on a town situated outside the range of operations—Freiburg, Baden. No damage was done. The incident merely shows that an open town not situated within the range of operations has been attacked with bombs by the enemy."

The day of Dec. 9 passed quietly in Belgium, as well as in the vicinity of Arras, according to the official statement given out at the war office in Paris. The war office claims French advances at several points on the extended battle front and makes no mention of any reverse. For instance, near Le Quesnoy gains of 200 to 600 yards were made; in the Aisne and on the heights of the Meuse the French artillery mastered the batteries of the enemy, and near Reims French cannon compelled the evacuation of trenches. Counter attacks were repulsed near Perthes and in the Argonne. In the latter locality new trenches were taken by the French.

An advance by the allies toward Parvilliers, in the French department of the Somme, and a repulse of a German effort to break through the Anglo-French line at Tracy-le-Val, in the department of the Oise, are reported by the French war office. Aside from this fighting, the latest in the battle along the long line from the North Sea to the Vosges mountains, the allies maintained their gains along the Yser river and elsewhere in Belgium, strengthening their new positions. Germany, however, also claims gains and the French war office admits that at one point the Germans blew up a French trench.

It is officially announced that Subhi Bey, late governor of Basra, Asiatic Turkey, commander of the Turkish forces at Kurna, has surrendered unconditionally with his troops to the Indian expeditionary force which is operating at the head of the Persian gulf. Kurna subsequently was occupied by the British, who are now in complete control of the country from the junction of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers to the sea and of the richest part of the fertile delta.

Military experts at Berlin regard the German victories in Poland of such importance that it is believed no further extensive operations will be undertaken on the eastern frontier until spring. The belief is expressed that the Germans now will be able to transfer ten army corps from the eastern zone to the western field of operations, which will result in another vigorous attempt to reach the French channel ports.

A Turkish detachment of twenty-three men landed with horses at Bouras, a small port on the Black Sea, near Odessa. The Turks struck inland and were captured four miles from Tarutino, Bessarabia. They were disarmed and taken to Tarutino. The province of Bessarabia is in southeastern Russia, adjoining Roumania. Tarutino is a German colony of about 4,000 inhabitants.

The Turkish government, through Ambassador Morgenthau, has signified to the state department its willingness that an expedition be sent to the relief of the people in Jerusalem. The expedition is being organized by Hebrew philanthropic societies in New York, which plan to send a ship through the Mediterranean to Palestine.

Three German merchantmen were sunk by British or Japanese warships off the coast of Terra Del Fuego, the southernmost extremity of South America last Sunday, according to advices received at Beunos Aires.

The Berliner Tageblatt states: "The pope has appealed to all the belligerent powers with the object of arranging a three weeks' truce for Christmas. Germany is unopposed to this in principle."

The Russian government has notified neutral shipping that military reasons compel it to place mines off the Russian and Turkish coasts and ports in the Black Sea.

According to a telegram from Maastricht, Holland, the Germans are confiscating telephone wire and all copper articles of domestic use in Belgium.

The Hamburg-American line has issued a statement that it has no intention of selling its ships now in American waters.

Unconfirmed reports which have reached Amsterdam state that Dixmude has been occupied by the allies.

Official announcement was made that Czar Nicholas has gone to the Caucasian front.
